

Mystery Royalty

Small Town Mysteries
Cozy Mysteries
Hard-Boiled Detective Novels

www.MysteryRoyalty.com

Mira Gibson

SMALL TOWN MURDER

Who Killed Leeanne?
Gibson, Mira

ISBN: 979-8-9901812-0-5

Paperback (5 x 8 inches)
354 pages

Retail: $16.95
Wholesale Discount 55%
Return: Yes/Destroy

Thomas from the Sea
Gibson, Mira

ISBN: 979-8-9901812-1-2

Paperback (5 x 8 inches)
422 pages

Retail: $16.95
Wholesale Discount 55%
Return: Yes/Destroy

COZY MYSTERY

The Matchmaker Murders (Season One)
Gibson, Catherine

ISBN: 979-8-9901812-2-9

Paperback (6 x 9 inches)
358 pages

Retail: $15.95
Wholesale Discount 55%
Return: Yes/Destroy

HARD-BOILED DETECTIVE

Lunatic
(The Kensington Killers)
Gibson, Mira

ISBN: 979-8-9901812-3-6
Paperback (5 x 8 inches)
382 pages

Retail: $17.95
Wholesale Discount 55%
Return: Yes/Destroy

Crank
(The Kensington Killers)
Gibson, Mira

ISBN: 979-8-9901812-4-3
Paperback (5 x 8 inches)
386 pages

Retail: $17.95
Wholesale Discount 55%
Return: Yes/Destroy

Mystery Royalty

Small Town Mysteries
Cozy Mysteries
Hard-Boiled Detective Novels
www.MysteryRoyalty.com

Mira Gibson

SMALL TOWN MURDER

WHO KILLED LEEANNE?

Passionate, wounded, and fiercely alive, Leeanne Hessinger has never felt free. She wants something more, something bigger than the life she's stumbled into, but fleeing to a town unknown to her with a single promise in mind—to finally write a novel—comes at a very high price.

When she's found brutally stabbed to death a year later, a small town's darkest secrets come to the forefront as the sheriff investigating the crime covers up her own treacherous involvement with the dead woman.

Full of twists and turns, WHO KILLED LEEANNE? reconstructs a year in the life of Leeanne Hessinger, as she walks the brink of her own destruction and inches closer and closer to death. The cost of freedom, for Leeanne, is ultimately her life.

Fans of Mindy Mejia's Everything You Want Me To Be and readers who enjoy mystery novels that portray deeply drawn characters, voice-driven narratives, and controversial subject matters will likely love this novel.

Who Killed Leeanne?

Gibson, Mira

ISBN: 979-8-9901812-0-5

Paperback

(5 x 8 inches)

354 pages

Retail: $16.95

Wholesale Discount 55%

Return: Yes/Destroy

Praise for Who Killed Leeanne?

After a long wait between novels....this book....oh!....it is the best she's ever written. Such a strange and curiously sad life that Leeanne lived. She could have had it all. She was her worst enemy. Her certain destroyer. This is a twisted and sad tale, indeed. You must read this book.

Karla Kay, 5-star review

Distributed through Ingram Content Group. Printed at Lightning Source.

For more information, contact Mystery Royalty via Mira Gibson at miragibson@gmail.com

Mystery Royalty

Small Town Mysteries
Cozy Mysteries
Hard-Boiled Detective Novels
www.MysteryRoyalty.com

Mira Gibson

SMALL TOWN MURDER

THOMAS FROM THE SEA

Summertime, 1986. A stripper is found dead on Woodland Beach and Crystal doubts that the crime is burning a hole in some detective's desk over at the local precinct. She knew the victim and because of it, Crystal is determined to find out who killed her.

As news of the murdered woman sweeps through town, an entire Christian congregation is shaken. Hadn't the victim just started attending their Sunday services? And why is one of their youngest members, a boy named Seth, the only person in their small seaside town who the police have been questioning?

Seth can't stand the other teenagers from the Kids for Christ program his uncle has been forcing him to go to. At home, he doesn't get along with his executioner uncle, though he thinks it's cool Robert kills people for a living. It's even cooler when Seth sees a man walk straight out of the sea and introduce himself as Thomas. Why the police have gotten it in their heads that Thomas is the prime suspect is laughable.

Having no faith in the police, Crystal steps her investigation up into high gear. Even when it means getting close to the boy's uncle, who happens to be one of her regulars at the club. Even when it means infiltrating the church to find out if the killer is there. And even when it means that Crystal herself could be the next to die.

Thomas from the Sea

Gibson, Mira

ISBN: 979-8-9901812-1-2

Paperback

(5 x 8 inches)

422 pages

Retail: $16.95

Wholesale Discount 55%

Return: Yes/Destroy

Praise for Thomas from the Sea

The story read well and kept me interested. The religion is heavy. The characters are well developed. You might even fall in love with Seth and Crystal. The ending was expected. But....an excellent story. A great read.

Karla Thompson, 4-star review

Distributed through Ingram Content Group. Printed at Lightning Source.

For more information, contact Mystery Royalty via Mira Gibson at miragibson@gmail.com

Mystery Royalty

Small Town Mysteries
Cozy Mysteries
Hard-Boiled Detective Novels
www.MysteryRoyalty.com

Mira Gibson

COZY MYSTERY

THE MATCHMAKER MURDERS (SEASON ONE)

What would you do if every match you made ended in murder?

Meet your new favorite sleuth investigator, Penny! Middle-aged, married, and quite the matchmaker, Penny has called the cozy town of Walnut Mountain "home" her entire life. But this quiet, Christian corner of Vermont soon gets turned upside down when one of Penny's latest love matches ends in murder!

The Matchmaker Murders, Season One, includes three wonderfully witty cozy mysteries you won't want to put down:

Death at the Double Date
Murder at the Movies
Poisoned at the Picnic

If you enjoy light-hearted cozy mysteries with lovable characters, surprising killers, and clean language, then Catherine Gibson's addictive new series will keep you turning the pages to find out whodunit!

The Matchmaker Murders
Gibson, Catherine
ISBN: 979-8-9901812-2-9

Paperback
(6 x 9 inches)
358 pages

Retail: $15.95
Wholesale Discount 55%
Return: Yes/Destroy

Ratings for The Matchmaker Murders

The Matchmaker Murders (Season One) has received an average star rating of five stars across various digital platforms and "ratings & reviews" websites, including Goodreads.

Distributed through Ingram Content Group. Printed at Lightning Source.
For more information, contact Mystery Royalty via Mira Gibson at miragibson@gmail.com

Mystery Royalty

Small Town Mysteries
Cozy Mysteries
Hard-Boiled Detective Novels
www.MysteryRoyalty.com

Mira Gibson

HARD-BOILED DETECTIVE

LUNATIC (The Kensington Killers, Book One)

When Detective Danielle Foster returns to the 66th Precinct after a maternity leave gone wrong, the unforeseeable death of her infant son who died of SIDS isn't the only tragedy weighing heavily on her mind. The latest female victim, found naked and brutally bludgeoned to death in the middle of Brooklyn's largest park, stirs in her dark ruminations she can't shake.

Recently transferred from Vice as a means to appease his overbearing wife, Detective Carter Dobbs has a lot to prove at the Special Victims Unit, and his new partner, Danny hasn't exactly welcomed him with open arms. As they charge headlong into a puzzling and increasingly disturbing investigation that takes them from picturesque Prospect Park to the seedy underbelly of NYC's modeling world, these brilliant and tireless investigators will stop at nothing to crack the case, even if it means putting their own complicated lives on hold.

What seemed at first to be a horrific but impulsive crime proves to have wider implications and soon the full extent of the killer's demented work becomes clear. Suspending hostilities, Danny and Carter barrel ahead in hot pursuit of a cold-blooded killer who draws them deeper and deeper towards the wicked truth, one which will threaten to shatter everything the detectives thought they knew about justice.

In the city where crime never sleeps, Danny and Carter must battle their own personal demons as well as a killer more depraved than any they've hunted before. But will they survive the investigation when it begins to strike far too close to home?

Lunatic

Gibson, Mira

ISBN: 979-8-9901812-3-6

Paperback

(5 x 8 inches)

382 pages

Retail: $17.95

Wholesale Discount 55%

Return: Yes/Destroy

Praise for Lunatic

This story is very complex. It has different layers of issues and things going on with just about every person involved in it. Answers are no easily found, and everyone must work together to get to find the killer(s). This story is very well written and doesn't give away anything! To find the killer, which I thought I had...and was wrong, you must read the entire book. Well played Mira Gibson. Well played!

Bev, 5-star review

The characters were complex and extremely well described with all their layers of good and bad . Scenery and even weather conditions were written about so realistically that it takes the reader right into the character's situation, surroundings , and moods . I have never left a review before but felt the need to do so this time in gratitude for this well written, imaginative storyline and it's gifted author...thank you

Lori Blaser, 5-star review

Distributed through Ingram Content Group. Printed at Lightning Source.

For more information, contact Mystery Royalty via Mira Gibson at miragibson@gmail.com

Mystery Royalty

Small Town Mysteries
Cozy Mysteries
Hard-Boiled Detective Novels
www.MysteryRoyalty.com

Mira Gibson

HARD-BOILED DETECTIVE

CRANK (The Kensington Killers, Book Two)

Brooklyn's grittiest neighborhood delivers another gruesome crime to Special Victims Unit detectives Danielle Foster and Carter Dobbs, this time a double homicide that quickly proves to be one of the most complex cases the 66th precinct has ever encountered.

The evidence is lacking. No one's talking. But as the killer's perverse motive, stemming from the darkest form of revenge, surfaces one unsettling photo at a time, Danny and Carter understand in an instant they're dealing with a criminal who plays God, devising his own definitions of right and wrong, and inflicting horrific punishments with chilling, religious overtones... And he's also holding a little girl captive.

As the case becomes high-profile, the investigation takes Carter into territory that hits dangerously close to home, pushing him beyond his personal limits and drawing him into a disturbingly familiar world connected by child abduction and a past he's worked hard to forget. Meanwhile, Danny finds herself tangled in the knots of a dark, family secret—one with twisted consequences that soon tighten like a noose around her neck—and hunting the killer, whose target shifts onto those closest to Carter, becomes a challenge she can barely face.

Carter's very identity is tested as he grapples with issues of conscience and survival in a struggle that pushes him to the very edge of the fine line between cop and criminal, and beyond. He'll need every skill he's learned to defeat his worst nightmare—and the stakes couldn't be higher.

Crank

Gibson, Mira

ISBN: 979-8-9901812-4-3

Paperback

(5 x 8 inches)

386 pages

Retail: $17.95

Wholesale Discount 55%

Return: Yes/Destroy

Praise for Crank

Mira Gibson has outdone herself. I was very impressed by the first book in the series and wasn't quite sure what would come next. Well no fears here. Gibson has managed to out do herself and improve on the story she began with the first book of the series. Well formulated and well written, Gibson flips the focus from her main character in the first book and focuses on Danny's partner, Carter. The change in the perspective allows us to get to know Carter better than in the first book all the while not sacrificing Danny's story. I thoroughly enjoyed this followup and look forward to seeing where Mira Gibson takes next in this ever evolving story. I highly recommend this book to fans of the first one and would urge newcomers to read the first book before starting this one.

Patrick Birkholtz, 5-star review

Distributed through Ingram Content Group. Printed at Lightning Source.

For more information, contact Mystery Royalty via Mira Gibson at miragibson@gmail.com

Mystery Royalty

Small Town Mysteries
Cozy Mysteries
Hard-Boiled Detective Novels
www.MysteryRoyalty.com

Mira Gibson

THE MYSTERY ROYALTY IMPRINT

Mystery Royalty is an independent publishing imprint. Established in 2024 by Mira Gibson, Mystery Royalty is dedicated to publishing quality stand-alone and serial novels within every sub-genre of mystery—small town & rural mystery, amateur sleuth & women sleuth, cozy mystery, hard-boiled detective, police procedural, and psychological thriller.

Mystery Royalty currently distributes through Ingram Content Group. We are dedicated to forming long-lasting, profitable business arrangements with our retailers.

As a publisher, we drive traffic and sales to our brick-and-mortar and online retailers via social media marketing and advertising, blogging and guest blogging, and virtual book tours & in-person author appearances when feasible.

ABOUT MIRA GIBSON

Mira Gibson is a playwright, screenwriter, and novelist. After majoring in Playwriting at Bard College, Mira was accepted into Youngblood, the playwrights group at Ensemble Studio Theatre (NYC). Her one-act play The Red White and Blue Process received a commission from The Sloan Foundation. And her one-act play Old Flame won the Samuel French Playwriting Competition and is available for licensing via Samuel French Play Publishers. Mira's screenplay, Warfield, was produced by Summer Smoke Productions and is available to rent or buy on Amazon Prime. In addition to script writing, Mira has authored dozens of mystery novels, as Mira Gibson and also as Catherine Gibson. Her earliest works were novel adaptations of stage plays, including Daddy Soda (adapted from the play of the same name) and Rock Spider (stage play Perverved Roberta), which are available within The New Hampshire Mysteries anthology. She lives in Oceanside, NY, where she continues to author novels, and write screenplays, original TV pilots, and stage plays.

Contact Mira Gibson

miragibson@gmail.com

Phone calls by appointment only. Please email to schedule.

www.MysteryRoyalty.com